SDA File No. 447 of 1908

Serial No.

Mr. Madhava Rao held the Dewanship for more than years.

The Comptroller may be right in holding that the excess of 2 days is not material and does not affect the claim to the higher pension. As however the proposal is (literally) against the terms of the Govt. order, the papers will be submitted to the Dewan, for obtaining the order of His Highness the Maharaja if necessary.

Submitted to His Highness.

I submit for orders a communication received from the Comptroller regarding the pension due to Mr. Madhava Rao, the late Dewan.

2. Under Government Order No.Fl.6281-2 dated 19th February 1907, Mr. Madhava Rao was to be given a pension of £1,000 per annum (inclusive of the pension of Rs.500 per mensem which he has already been drawing), if he retired after holding the office of Dewan for 3 years, and if he held the office for a longer period the amount was to be reduced to Rs.1,000 per mensem. Mr. Madhava Rao held the office for three years and two days. The excess of two days over the period of three years is, as noted by the Comptroller, not material; but, as pointed out by the Second Councillor, necessitates the submission of the case for the special orders of His Highness the Maharaja.

3. Sanction may be graciously accorded in which case the Comptroller will be authorised to issue a revised pension roll at the rate of £1,000 per annum payable monthly at Rs.1,250 per mensem as for and from the 1st April 1909.
